

The annual general meeting included two third-party presentations. Here are the slides:

This presentation is a summary of the Toronto Ravine Revitalization Study, which evaluates the health of our ravines.

This presentation was about an invasive plants species called Japanese Knotweed, which is growing threat to our local plant life.